injuries.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioners submitted that on a bare reading of the FIR, it is evident that the genesis of the occurrence is nothing but a trifle. Moreover, in the said incidence, the mother of the informant has sustained simple injury. There is a counter version of the present case being Sultanganj P.S. Case No. 270 of 2025 instituted by the wife of petitioner no. 2 against the informant and others. Another co-accused person who is facing somewhat identical allegations has been extended the privilege of anticipatory bail by a Bench of this Court in Criminal Miscellaneous No. 14685 of 2026. The petitioners are carrying fair antecedent and undertake that they will fully cooperate in the proceeding of the Court.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State vehemently opposed the bail application and submits that the informant’s mother has sustained serious injury over a vital part and the petitioners are authors of the same.

6. Considering the rival submissions advanced by learned Advocate for the respective parties and taking note of the genesis of the occurrence coupled with the factum of case and counter case and the simple nature of injuries, besides the fair antecedent of the petitioners, let the petitioners above
