CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRAVEEN KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

2 28-10-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

2. This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Bichkorwa P.S. Case No. 73 of 2026 for the offence punishable under Section 80 and 3(5) of the B.N.S.

3. The case of the prosecution is that the daughter of the informant was married to the co-accused Gopal Yadav in 2022. After the said marriage, the daughter of the informant went to her matrimonial house and gave birth to two daughters. Thereafter, it is alleged that the petitioners and co-accused Gopal Yadav started demanding Rs. 5 lakhs as dowry so as to purchase a four wheeler vehicle. The informant got the information from her daughter that all the accused persons including the petitioners are standing in front of her and all were armed with lathi and danda. Thereafter, several calls were made by the informant, but no one received the call. It has further been alleged that after 15 minutes, the informant got a call that his daughter has died.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners are the mother-in-law and the father-in-law respectively of the deceased and there happens to be general and omnibus allegation against the petitioners. It has further been submitted that the petitioners used to reside separate from the deceased and her husband from the time of the marriage of the deceased, in mess and residence both and had got no concern with their day to day affairs. It has further been submitted, referring to paragraph 18 of the present anticipatory bail application, that husband of the deceased, namely, Gopal Yadav, is in judicial custody when he came to be arrested. It has lastly been submitted that the petitioners have got no criminal antecedent.

5. Learned counsel for the State opposed the prayer of anticipatory bail of the petitioners.

6. Heard the parties and perused the record.
