possession.

4. On the other hand, the learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for bail.

5. From the reading of the allegations in the FIR, it appears that the main assailant is one Santosh Kumar who is said to have attacked the husband of the informant with a Garasa, which caused injury to the husband. There is general and omnibus allegation against others, including the petitioner, of assaulting and abusing the informant and of snatching M*angalsutra* and Rs. 15,000

6. Considering the nature of the allegations leveled against petitioner no. 1, Vimlesh Yadav and also taking into account that he bears no previous criminal antecedent, having regard to the nature of the accusation, anticipatory bail is granted to petitioner no. 1.

7. Let the petitioner No.1, namely Vimlesh Yadav @ Jhareli @ Vimlesh Yadav, in the event of his arrest or surrender within four weeks from today, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned court of I/c A.C.J.M. Masaurhi or concern court, Masaurhi in connection with Bhagwanganj P.S. Case No. 159 of 2026 subject to the conditions laid down under section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure/Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and subject to further condition that :-

(i) The petitioner shall co-operate in the investigation/ trial.

(ii) The learned Court below would, however, verify the criminal antecedent of the petitioner and in case, it is found that the petitioner has concealed his criminal antecedent, the Court below shall take step for cancellation of bail bond of the petitioner. However, it is expected that the verification process would be done expeditiously without causing any delay.

8. So far as petitioner no. 2 is concerned, he has already been arrested, and therefore, this application has become infructuous with regard to petitioner no. 2. It is, accordingly, dismissed with regard to petitioner no. 2.
