paragraph No. 3 of the bail application.

5. It has been further submitted by the petitioner's counsel that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. From perusal of the FIR, it would reveal that there is specific allegation against the petitioner. Another accused person has also assaulted the injured on his leg, while several co-accused persons gave lathi and danda blow. Injury of the injured is found to be grievous in nature, which is evident from the impugned order. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is subsisting land dispute between the parties. Charge sheet has already been submitted in this case.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner.

7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, period of custody of the petitioner and charge sheet being submitted, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

8. Let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 15,000/- (Fifteen Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Court below/concerned Court in connection with Barachatti P.S. Case No. 627 of 2017, subject to the following conditions:
