CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN

ORAL ORDER

2 04-11-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends arrest in connection with Bodh Gaya P.S. Case No. 288 of 2026 lodged on 22.05.2026, for the offence punishable under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 132, 324(4), 352 and 351(2) of the BNS, 2023.

3. As per the prosecution, FIR has been lodged against the sole petitioner alleging that he has entered in the computer hall of the informant's office and committed the offence of criminal intimidation and snatched the mobile of the informant and throw it due to which mobile was completely damaged.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He submits that entire allegation is false and the petitioner is the local villager and he reached in the office with a view to verify from the officials as to why they are preparing the false report and taking money and not doing the actual work. Counsel further submits that upon some query by the petitioner, the informant become angry and filed this criminal case against him. Counsel submits that all the sections under which the FIR has been lodged are bailable save and except, section 132 of the B.N.S., 2023, i.e., criminal intimidation. Counsel submits that the ingredients of the criminal intimidation is not present in the FIR. Counsel further submits that antecedent of the petitioner is not clean as there is one case pending against him in which he is on bail.

5. Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioner but fairly submits that all the offences are bailable in nature except Section 132 of the B.N.S., 2023.

6. As such, in the present facts and circumstances of the case, let the above-named petitioner be released on bail, in the event of arrest or surrender before the Trial Court within a period of 4 weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand) as mentioned in Section
