CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA

ORAL ORDER

2 05-11-2026 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned A.P.P. for the State, Mr. Chandra Bhushan Prasad.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109(1), 74, 303(2), 351(2), 352 and 3(5) of the BNS, 2023.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and petitioners are alleged to have assaulted her husband by knife on head, further petitioners no. 1 by knife assaulted informant and her daughter.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant with exaggerated allegation. It is next submitted that petitioners and the informant are neighbourers and on account of dispute arising out of grazing of crop by the goats of the informant, an altercation had taken place in which both sides assaulted each other. It is next submitted that though it is alleged that petitioners assaulted by knife, but then from perusal of the injury report, it would manifest that the injury suffered has been opined to be simple in nature caused by hard and blunt substance, thus, allegation of assault by knife is belied.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Sakra P.S. Case No. 292 of 2026 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482 (2) of the BNSS.

7. Accordingly, the instant anticipatory bail
