on fire.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has not committed any offence. He has falsely been implicated in the present case due to village politics. He further submits that due to land dispute, the alleged occurrence had taken place and the petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer of anticipatory bail.

6. From the allegations levelled in the FIR, it transpires that a fight h ad broken out between the agnates regarding demarcation of piece of lant by ameen, which led to scuffle. There is case and counter case arising out of the same incident, the details of which have been given in paragraph 12 of the application. The petitioner is also stated to be having clean antecedent. It is also stated that the injury sustained is not serious in nature. Under these circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Let the petitioner, named above, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within four weeks from today, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount
