2. The petitioner seeks bail, apprehending his arrest, in connection with Akbarpur P.S. Case No.182 of 2025, dated.13.04.2025, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(1), 191(2), 191(3), 126(2), 115(2), 118(1), 117(2), 109, 303(2), 352, 351(2), 74, of the B.N.S., 2023.

3. As per allegation, the Petitioner and other co-accused came to the house of the Informant and started assaulting the Informant and his family members using talwar and khanti causing injury on their persons.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the Petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that as a matter of fact, the present FIR is a counterblast of Akbarpur P.S. Case No. 181 of 2025 lodged on account of outraging the modesty of two ladies of the Petitioner's side. He further submits that on account of this sexual assault committed against the lady members of the Petitioner's side, altercation took place, in which both the sides got injury. He further brings to the notice of this Court that the FIR lodged by the Petitioner's side was on the same day prior to the present FIR in which they are seeking bail. Moreover, the present case has been lodged by the Informant side only to save their skin from the offence of sexual assault committed by them against the lady members of the Petitioner's side.

5. It is also stated in paragraph no. 2 of the bail petition that the petitioner has not moved this Court earlier either for anticipatory bail or regular one in the instant case.

6. It has further been stated in paragraph no.3 of the bail petition that the petitioner has no criminal antecedents.

7. However, learned APP for the State vehemently opposes the prayer of the Petitioner for bail.

8. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this petition is allowed, directing the petitioner, above-named, to be enlarged on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of eight weeks from the
