4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. It has further been submitted that the dispute, as per the allegation itself, was due to parking of the vehicle inside the hospital premises and the petitioner had objected to parking of vehicle at the said place as it was thorough lane, which would cause difficulty in plying of the vehicles in the hospital premises as it was the way of ambulance also, which made the informant angry and resulted into lodging of the present F.I.R. It has further been submitted that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent.

5. Learned counsel for the State opposed the prayer of anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

6. Heard the parties and perused the record.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances as well as the genesis of occurrence and also there being no injury report of the informant, let the petitioner above named, in the event of his arrest/surrender within six weeks from today in the Court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Siwan, in connection with Siwan Town P.S. Case No. 159 of
