his collar, and stabbed him in the left thigh, also injured his palm as he tried to block the weapon. The assailant fled when the informant's wife and villagers arrived in response to his cries for help.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in the present case. General and omnibus allegation has been made against the petitioner. No specific overt act is alleged against the petitioner. Specific allegation of assault is alleged against co-accused, namely, Chandan Kumar. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was not present at the place of occurrence and has become victim of circumstances. Charge-sheet has been submitted in this case. The petitioner is in custody since 09.08.2026 and has one criminal antecedent.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case and the period of custody undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.15,000/- (Fifteen thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Court
