been alleged that 10 minutes later, the petitioner along with other co-accused persons, caught hold of the informant and assaulted her with knife causing bleeding injuries.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case while there is delay of 3 days in lodging the F.I.R. when prior to the present case, informant's side had also lodged Narhat P.S. Case No. 165 of 2026, for the offences punishable under Section 103(1) and 109 of B.N.S. in which the same accused persons of this case were made accused in that case out of which two persons has died. It has lastly been submitted that the petitioner No.2 and 3 were made accused in one another case in which they are on bail and petitioner No.1 has got clean antecedent.

5. Learned counsel for the State as well as learned counsel for the informant vehemently opposed the prayer of anticipatory bail of the petitioners. Learned counsel for the informant has submitted that the petitioner along with co-accused persons were part of unlawful assembly sharing a common intention and they do not deserve the privilege of anticipatory bail.

6. Heard the parties and perused the record.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances as well as
