CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY

ORAL ORDER

2 25-11-2026 Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Rivilganj P.S. Case No. 464 of 2026 for the offence registered under sections 126(2), 115(2), 118(1), 74, 352, 3(5) of the BNS lodged on 01.08.2026 by the informant, Mishti Oni.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that the accused persons came to her house and after the abuse, the assault took place. These two petitioners gave iron rod blow on the head causing injuries. She was taken to the hospital which followed the FIR.

4. Learned Counsel for the petitioners submit that there is case and counter case, both are agnates, injuries have been found to be simple in nature, both petitioners do not have criminal antecedent.

5. The last submission is that without accepting the allegation and/or the outcome of the present petition in view of the fact that the informant side has alleged injuries, the petitioners on its own would like to contribute towards the medical assistance of Rs. 5,000/- each (totalling Rs. 10,000/-) through Demand Draft issued by the local branch of the State Bank of India/any Nationalized Bank to be submitted before the ‘NAZARAT’ of concerned Court to be handed over to the informant after checking the credentials.

6. Learned APP for the State, on the other hand, opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail submitting that though simple in nature, they have inflicted injuries upon the informant.

7. Considering the submissions of the parties aforesaid as also that the injuries have been found to be simple in nature, they do not have criminal antecedent, in that background, this Court is inclined to grant them the anticipatory bail with conditions subject to payment of Rs. 5,000/- each
