ORAL ORDER

2 20-11-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 126(2), 137(2), 96, 352 and 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

3. Petitioner in association of his friend is said to have kidnapped the minor daughter of the informant.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the present case arises out of a love relationship between the petitioner and the victim. It is further submitted that the petitioner did not kidnap the minor daughter of the informant, rather she had gone to Delhi out of her own volition and this fact has been admitted by herself in her statement recorded under Section 183 B.N.S.S. She has admitted in her statement that she had gone to Delhi with the petitioner and got married to him. Petitioner's anticipatory bail application was earlier rejected by a coordinate Bench of this Court wherein it was observed that the present case does not seem to be a case of kidnapping. It is pointed out that on the intervention of well wishers of both the families, the matter has been compromised, which is Annexure-P/6 to this petition. Petitioner is a young boy and languishing in custody since 31.07.2026. Chargesheet has been submitted and the petitioner undertakes to cooperate in the trial.

5. Learned APP for the State opposed the bail petition.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the statement of the victim recorded under Section 183 B.N.S.S. admitting the love relationship, the above named petitioner, who has clean antecedent, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Court below where the case is pending/successor Court in connection with Simri P.S. Case No.37 of 2026.
