ORAL ORDER

2 04-11-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. In the present case, the petitioner seeks bail in connection with Maranga P.S. Case No. 94 of 2025, registered for the offence under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109 and 3(5) of BNS.

3. As per prosecution case, the husband of the informant received a number of injuries in the hands by the petitioner and other co-accused persons.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. No occurrence of assault over the husband of the informant has ever taken place. True fact of this case is that due to drunken driving of the victim himself he received injuries and the motive to extort money, the present case has been lodged. There is no eye-witness to the occurrence and whole prosecution story is based on the suspicion of the informant and there is no supportive material and the petitioner has been named as they have been seen together with the husband of the informant who allegedly took liquor. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the injury of the husband of the informant was found to be grievous. The same supports the claim of the petitioner about husband of the informant meeting with the accident. Learned counsel further submits that co-accused Vikram Mehta has been granted bail by this Court vide order dated 15.10.2026 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 74272 of 2026. The petitioner is having clean antecedent and he is in custody since 17.08.2026.

5. Learned learned A.P.P. for the State vehemently opposes the submission made on behalf of the petitioner and submits that the husband of the informant received a number of injuries in the hands by the petitioner.

6. Having regard to the facts and circumstances and submission made on behalf of the parties and considering the false implication and also considering the clean antecedent of
