CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

2 05-11-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned A.P.P. on behalf of the State.

2. The petitioner has been made an accused in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109(1) and 3(5) of the B.N.S.

3. As per the allegations made in the F.I.R., Santosh Kumar, aged about 15 years, was grazing buffaloes. Consequent to an earlier dispute, he was allegedly assaulted by five persons named in the F.I.R., including the petitioner, with iron rods. It is further alleged that the petitioner was armed with a rifle.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that, although the petitioner has been named in the F.I.R., there is no specific allegation against him. It is further submitted that the allegation of assault is omnibus in nature and is directed against five persons. In this regard, learned counsel has referred to Annexure-P/3, which is the injury report of Santosh Kumar. The injury sustained by Santosh Kumar on his head has been found to be simple in nature. Learned counsel further submits that there is no repetition of blow by the accused persons. It is further submitted that earlier also a counter-case was filed by the petitioner against the husband of the informant, vide Annexure-2, and that is the reason why the petitioner has been implicated in the present case with an exaggerated allegations. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner has one case against him. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner undertakes to cooperate with the trial and not to repeat the offence.

5. The petitioner has been in judicial custody since 07.09.2026.

6. Learned A.P.P. on behalf of the State has opposed the application.

7. Taking into consideration the entire facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner, above-named, is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the
