that the accused persons also assaulted the family members of the informant due to which they sustained injuries.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are innocent and have falsely been implicated in this case due to land dispute between the parties. Both the parties are agnates and there is case and counter case between the parties. During the scuffle, both the parties have sustained injuries which are not grievous in nature. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submit that petitioners have no criminal antecedents and they undertake to co-operate in the investigation and trial.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, clean antecedents of the petitioners, nature of allegation and submission of learned counsel for the parties, in the event of arrest or surrender before the Court below within six weeks from today, the petitioners be released on bail upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Aurangabad in connection with Madanpur P.S. Case No. 349 of 2026, subject to the
