damage to the drain. Thereafter, petitioner nos. 1 and 2 allegedly abused and assaulted the informant. Upon hearing the commotion, the informant's family members came to his rescue, whereupon the accused persons allegedly assaulted them as well.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioners are innocent and have falsely been implicated in this case. There is land dispute between the parties. Both the parties are co-villagers and during the scuffle, both the parties have sustained injuries. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that there is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioners. Petitioners have no criminal antecedents and they undertake to co-operate in the investigation and trial.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegation against the petitioners, their clean antecedents and submission of learned counsel for the parties, in the event of arrest or surrender before the Court below within six weeks from today, the petitioner be released on bail upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of
