CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR

ORAL ORDER

2 25-11-2026 Heard learned Advocate for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Anti P.S. Case No. 22 of 2023, registered for the offenses punishable under Sections 147, 149, 323, 341, 337, 308, 504, 506 of the I.P.C.

3. Allegedly, on the given date and time of occurrence, while the co-accused Ravindra Yadav @ Dharmendra Kumar was sitting at the door of the informant's house, a quarrel took place and, in the meantime, the petitioner along with other accused persons armed with lathi, danda and iron rod came there and brutally assaulted the informant and others due to which they sustained injuries.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioner submitted that the present case is nothing but a counter blast to Anti P.S. Case No. 21 of 2023 which has been instituted by one of the co-accused persons against the informant and his family members. Even if the allegation is taken to be true, no injury has been specifically attributed to the petitioner and moreover, the injuries are found to be simple in nature upon medical examination. Other co-accused persons facing identical allegation have been extended the privilege of anticipatory bail by a Bench of this Court in Criminal Miscellaneous No. 57532 of 2024 vide order dated 04.09.2024, the copy of which is marked as Annexure-4 to the bail application. The petitioner, though bears one criminal antecedent, however, is presently on bail in the said case.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State vehemently opposed the bail application.

6. Considering the factum of case and counter case, coupled with the simple nature of injuries and the case of the petitioner stands on similar footing to those of the other co-accused persons who have been extended the privilege of anticipatory bail, let the petitioner above named be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court
