case. Petitioner is in custody since 19.09.2026 and he bears no criminal antecedent. He further submits that petitioner is not owner of the vehicle in question rather petitioner is merely a driver and he has to follow the instruction of the owner of the vehicle in question to earn his livelihood. Petitioner had no knowledge that illicit liquor had been kept in the vehicle in question. Petitioner has no concern with the seized liquor. No incriminating article has been recovered from conscious possession of the petitioner. Petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged recovery. Hence, the petitioner deserves bail.

5. The learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioner and submits that petitioner is FIR named accused and he was apprehended on the spot. Hence, petitioner cannot escape from the allegation made in the FIR.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, period of custody, keeping in view clean antecedent of the petitioner, argument advanced on behalf of both sides and also taking into consideration the material available on record, let the petitioner above named be released on bail, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 20,000/- (rupees twenty thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Exclusive Special Judge, Excise Court No. - I, Rohtas at Sasaram in
