ORAL ORDER

4 20-02-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned APP for the State and learned counsel for the O.P. No.2.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 137(2), 140(3) of the B.N.S. and Section 8 and 12 of the POCSO Act.

3. Petitioner is said to have abducted the daughter of the informant.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the present case arises out of love relationship between the petitioner and the victim. The age of the daughter of the informant even according to the First Information Report was 17 years as such, she was almost on the verge of majority and the statement of the victim recorded Section 183 of the B.N.S.S. has been enumerated in the bail rejection order according to which she has accepted that she had left the house on her own will and even got married to the petitioner and had become pregnant. Further, the petitioner is in custody since 27.07.2025 with no criminal antecedent and charge-sheet has already been submitted.

5. Learned counsel for the informant has instructions that the matter has now been amicably resolved between the parties and the informant does not want to pursue the matter as such, he does not have any objection if the bail is granted to the petitioner.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances and also considering the 183 B.N.S.S. statement of the victim coupled with the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their dispute, let the above named petitioner, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Saharsa Sadar P.S. Case No. 380 of 2025.
