CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PURNENDU SINGH
ORAL ORDER

4 09-01-2026 Heard Mr. Satya Prakash Sinha, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners and Mr. Ajit Kumar, learned A.P.P for the State.

2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of petitioners seeks modification in order dated 22.09.2023 passed in Criminal Miscellaneous No. 62910 of 2023 with respect to attendance of the petitioners before the local police station every month at 9 A.M.

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are labourer and they are now hand to mouth in want of any work in the village in which they reside. Petitioners could not move outside their village and as such considering the pathetic condition of the petitioners, who have been made accused in connection with Bhagwanpur P.S. Case No. 135 of 2018 for the offences under Sections 394 as well as taking into consideration that petitioners have made a specific statement in paragraph no. 3 that five criminal cases have been registered against the petitioners in different police station of the district. Learned counsel further submitted that no doubt in all the cases, petitioners have been made accused under Sections 392, 302, 394, Arms Act and other allied sections of the Indian Penal Code but in all the cases petitioners are on bail. Learned counsel further submitted that without default petitioners have given their attendance before the concerned S.H.O. and as such the said condition may be modified.

3. Considering aforesaid submission made on behalf of the petitioner as well as the antecedent of the petitioner, I am of the opinion that the order is modified to the extent that the petitioners are directed to give their attendance before the S.H.O. of the concerned Police Station under which their house is located, after every four months at 9 A.M. The concerned S.H.O. is/are directed to submit the report to the Superintendent of Police having jurisdiction.

4. Accordingly, the order is modified to the above extent.
5. The other part of the order shall remain intact.
