3. The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that by order dated 17.12.2025, the case diary was called for by a learned Coordinate Bench, but then, instead of case diary supplementary case diary has been received.

4. The Court will not wait endlessly for the case diary.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and allegation is of recovery of 2358.720 litres of liquor from four different

6. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner was not arrested from the spot, as such, nothing was recovered from his conscious possession and is not the owner of any of the seized vehicle and he came to be implicated based on confessional statement of Uma Shankar in police custody, which does not have any evidentiary value.

7. Learned A.P.P. opposes the anticipatory bail application.

8. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner, above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, is directed to be released on provisional anticipatory bail on his furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs.500/- (Rupees Five Hundred) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court where the case is pending/successor Court in connection with Bypass P.
