cash, motorcycle, ornaments and other articles were given as gift. It has further been alleged that after about three months of marriage, the petitioner including other accused persons started demanding a car as dowry and, upon refusal, the complainant was subjected to mental and physical harassment.

4. Earlier, the matter was referred to mediation centre by this Court vide its order, dated 23.02.2026.
5. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the mediation has been successful and both the parties have resolved their disputes through process of mediation in accordance with the terms of settlement, mutually arrived at by the parties, having been recorded in the mediation report, dated 09.04.2026, passed in Mediation Proceeding No. 290 of 2025.
6. Considering the submissions advanced by the parties and taking into consideration the terms of settlement arrived at between them in mediation and in the interest of both the husband and the wife, I am inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail, subject to condition that both petitioner-husband and complainant-wife shall abide by the terms and condition of the settlement, arrived at and signed by both the parties in mediation.

7. With the aforesaid observations and direction, this application is allowed.
8. Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of four weeks from today, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Bikramganj, Rohtas, in connection with Complaint Case No. 33 of 2023, subject to the condition that both the parties shall strictly abide by the terms and condition of the agreement of meditation report, dated 09.04.2026.
