CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

4 10-04-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

2. Petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Section 105/3(5) of the B.N.S., 2023.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that case diary has been received but F.S.L. report is awaited, it is next submitted that petitioner is person with clean antecedent and the informant alleges that his daughter about a week back had come to her parental home from her matrimonial home and was suffering from skin disease. Accordingly, on 18.06.2025 the informant called Bimlesh for giving injection, but Bimlesh sent his brother Amarjit (petitioner), who has no experience of giving injection, as such, after Amarjit injected his daughter, the condition of his daughter deteriorated, thereafter, Amarjit called Bimlesh who came and gave another injection and assured that his daughter would be fine, further at 9 P.M., both the brother left and thereafter, the condition of his daughter deteriorated and on the way to the hospital, she died.

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant, it is further submitted that from perusal of the allegation as alleged in the F.I.R., it would manifest that informant alleges that petitioner came and gave injection to his daughter on account of which her condition deteriorated but thereafter Bimlesh was called who also came and gave another injection and the condition stabilise, as would manifest from the fact that the informant alleges that after some time both brothers left. It is also submitted that petitioner has successfully completed the Emergency Medical Technician-Basis (EMT) Course and her also completed his two year's course of Community Medical Service and Essential Drug (CMS & EB) from Global Paramedical Institute, as would manifest from Annexure-2 series to supplementary affidavit, it is further submitted that if privilege of anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioner, the petitioner will not abscond rather will cooperate in the investigation.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State vehemently opposes the anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Let the petitioner, as named above, in the event of his arrest or surrender within four weeks from today, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Dalsingsarai, Samastipur, in connection with Angarghat P.S. Case No. 69 of 2025, subject to the conditions laid down under section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure/Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.

8. However, it is made clear that if the investigating officer of the case file an application before the learned trial Court bringing to its notice that petitioner despite giving assurance to this Court is not cooperating in the investigation, in that event, the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail bond of the petitioner after recording the reason.
