So far as the allegation specifically with regard to the petitioner is concerned, it has been submitted that he is said to have assaulted the husband of the informant on his finger by means of butt of the rifle and on the cheek of the informant.

While one of the injury is said to be simple in nature, the injury on the finger is said to be grievous, however, the same is on non-vital part and other accused is also said to have assaulted on the finger. 6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances and also considering the fact that the petitioner and the informant's husband are real brothers and the case arises out of a family dispute coupled with the fact that the injury attributed to the present petitioner has been caused on non-vital part, let the petitioner above named, who has no criminal antecedent, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks, be released on anticipatory bail in connection with Noorsarai P.S.
