ORAL ORDER

2 15-01-2026 1. Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

2. This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Sarairanjan Police Station Case No. 181 of 2025, disclosing offences under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 76, 303(2), 352, 351(2), 3(5) of the BNS, 2023.

3. As per the prosecution case, on 12.09.2025, while the informant was constructing a cowshed on her land, the accused persons, including the petitioners, allegedly abused and assaulted her, during which she was disrobed and her gold ornaments were snatched. It is further alleged that when her husband intervened, he was also assaulted by an iron rod and cash was taken from his pocket.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are completely innocent and have committed no crime. Both the parties are closely related and there is land dispute between the parties. The petitioners are not having any criminal antecedents. The entire prosecution case is false, baseless, and fabricated. The petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case due to village politics and land disputes. No specific charges have been leveled against the petitioners.

5. Having regard to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration the fact that petitioners are having no criminal antecedents, both the parties are closely related and there is land dispute between them, accordingly, I am inclined to grant the petitioners privilege of anticipatory bail.

6. This application is, accordingly, allowed.

7. Let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the Court below within four weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate- 1st Class, Samastipur, in connection with Sarairanjan Police Station Case No. 181 of 2025, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure/Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023.
