A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Madhaura P.S. Case No. 584 of 2025, instituted under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109, 303(2), 352, 351(2), 3(5) of the B.N.S.

3. As per the prosecution case, on the date of occurrence when the informant was running his tea stall petitioner along with F.I.R. named accused persons came and started abusing the informant. On asking for the same, the accused persons assaulted the informant with legs and fists causing injury. It is alleged that petitioner assaulted the informant with dab causing injury on his head. The accused persons also snatched the golden chain of the informant.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. In fact, informant and his family members had brutally assaulted the members of petitioner's side for which F.I.R. was lodged by the petitioner's side. Due to some trivial dispute between the parties, free fight took place. Injuries sustained by the informant is simple in nature which is lacerated wound caused by hard and blunt substance which does not corroborate the version of the informant. Other co-accused persons have already been granted anticipatory bail by the Court concerned. Petitioner has one criminal antecedent which belongs to Excise Act. Petitioner undertakes to co-operate in the investigation and trial.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submission of learned counsel for the parties and injury does not corroborate the version of the informant, in the event of arrest or surrender before the Court below within six weeks from today, the petitioner be released on bail upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial
