APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Mohiuddin Nagar P.S. Case No.142 of 2025 registered for the offence under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 118(1), 109(1), 117(2), 351(2), 352, 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita.

3. As per prosecution case, on the occasion of Muharam, many people were present, in the meantime all the accused persons including the petitioner have come various arms and attacked the informant and his family members with sharp weapon and injured the informant and unconscious.
Accordingly, the FIR.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence and he has falsely been implicated in this case. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the FIR has been lodged after seven days of the date of occurrence without any plausible explanation and there is general and omnibus allegation against the accused persons, without being any specific allegation of assault against the petitioner.

5. The learned APP opposes the anticipatory bail application.

6. Considering the fact that the FIR has been lodged after seven days of the date of occurrence without any plausible explanation and also taking into account the fact that there is general and omnibus allegation against the accused persons, without there being any specific allegation of assault against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, is directed to be released on anticipatory bail on his furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs.10,000/0 (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Sub-Divisional

Judicial Magistrate, Patory, Samastipur in connection with Mohiuddin Nagar P.S. Case No.142 of 2025, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 482(2) of the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita.
