JUDGMENT AND ORDER (ORAL)

1. The Minutes of the meeting which was convened on 26-06-2026, has been produced by the learned counsel for the respondent No. 3. A copy in vernacular as well as a translated copy has been provided.

2. A perusal of the Minutes shows that the meeting only resolved to constitute a committee to identify appropriate measures for restoring peace and tranquillity in the village.

3. This Court notes that the instant writ petition was filed by the writ petitioner questioning the convening of the meeting on the apprehension that in the said meeting, his removal would be discussed or action taken upon the same.

4. As it appears that his fears are unfounded, the writ petition is closed and disposed of.

5. Copy of the Minutes is taken on board and made part of the record.
