Coram:

Hon'ble Mr. Justice W. Diengdoh, Judge

Appearance:

For the Petitioner/Appellant(s) : Mr. S. Choudhury, Adv.

For the Respondent(s) : Mr. K.P. Bhattacharjee, GA.

i) Whether approved for reporting in Law journals etc.: Yes/No

ii) Whether approved for publication in press: Yes/No

JUDGMENT (ORAL):

1. Heard Mr. S. Choudhury, learned counsel for the petitioner, who has submitted that the petitioner herein being apprehensive of imminent arrest in connection with Tura P.S. Case No. 87 of 2024 under Section 336(2)/336(3)/340(2)/353(1) of the BNS, 2023, has approached this Court with a prayer for grant of anticipatory bail.

2. However, at this point of time, the learned counsel has submitted that in the meantime, vide order dated 05.12.2025, the Court of the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, West Garo Hills, Tura in GR Case No. 65/25 has since acknowledged the FR (Final Report) filed by the police and has noted down that no prima facie case is made out against the named accused therein, and accordingly, the said accused person were discharged. As such, Tura P.S. Case No. 87 of 2024 no longer survives.

3. In this view of the matter, the learned counsel has submitted that this application has become infructuous as the issue of apprehension no longer exists and necessary orders may be passed in this regard.

4. Mr. K.P. Bhattacharjee, learned GA appearing for the State respondent has also submitted that necessary orders may be passed in view of the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

5. This Court, on consideration of the submission made, and taking note of the copy of the order dated 05.12.2025 which has been produced today, the same is being brought on record and marked as Annexure-X and would observe that the prayer made in this application has become redundant and the application itself has become infructuous.

6. Accordingly, this application is disposed of on being infructuous.

7. The interim bail granted is hereby vacated.
