ORDER

02.11.2026

Heard Mr. A.R. Medhi, learned counsel for the applicant. Also heard Mr. P.

Das, learned counsel for the respondent No.11; Mr. H. Sarma, learned Government Advocate for the State respondents.

The counsel for the applicant submits that the addresses reflected in the cause title of the connected writ petition being WP(C) No.1091/2026, insofar as the respondents Nos.9 & 10 are concerned were wrongly reflected. He therefore, seeks leave of the Court to make necessary corrections. According to the learned counsel for the applicant the correct addresses of the respondents Nos. 9 & 10 are reflected in paragraph No. 5 of the interlocutory application.

Since no objections are raised by the learned counsel for the respondents therefore, this interlocutory application stands allowed.

The writ petitioner in WP(C) No.1091/2026 is permitted to file amended cause title in the said writ petition reflecting the correct address of respondents Nos. 9 & 10 as reflected in the paragraph No.5 of the interlocutory application.

The amended cause title will be filed within a period of one week from today and thereafter, the Registry will list the matter.
