Heard Mr. G.K. Medhi, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. M.P.

Goswami, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent State.

2. This application under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 has been filed by the petitioner, namely, Avijit Saha, seeking pre-arrest bail in connection with Cyber Crime Police Station, Hansi Case No. 0051/2026 Case No. 175/2025 under Section 318(4) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

3. The petitioner obtained a copy of the FIR, which was lodged by one Kailash Chandra, alleging that he had paid certain sums of money on numerous occasions through a QR code on mobile number 8437992949 for the purpose of investment. However, when he asked for return of his investments, the person at the other end refused and in this manner he was cheated out of Rs.1,72,000/- (Rupees One Lakh and Seventy Two Thousand).

4. It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that he is suffering from hypertension, diabetes and chronic kidney disease because of which it is very much difficult for him to approach the Court of competent jurisdiction seeking pre-arrest bail at Haryana and in this regard, petitioner has produced a discharge certificate dated 04.11.26 issued by GMCH, Guwahati, wherein he has been advised bed rest for two weeks. He has also been advised to review in the Nephrology OPD thereafter. It is therefore submitted that the petitioner may be granted limited transit anticipatory bail, so that he may approach the jurisdictional Court at Haryana.

5. Having regard to the medical condition of the petitioner and as the petitioner apprehends arrest in connection with the aforesaid case, the prayer for transit anticipatory bail is allowed.

6. It is accordingly directed that in the event of his arrest in connection with the aforesaid case, the petitioner shall be released on interim bail of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand) with a surety for like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting authority. This protection will be valid for another 14 (Fourteen) days from today.

7. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
