In Re: An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023.

In the matter of : Sk. Nephijuddin

.... Petitioner

Sk. Rejaul Alam

...for the Petitioner

Mr. Ranabir Roy Chaudhury
Mr. Atif Ahmed Siddiqui

...for the State

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was not named in the FIR. He was named in the charge sheet that was filed in July, 2025. The only material available against the petitioner is the statement of the co-accused, which is inadmissible in evidence.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. However, he submits that the only material available against the present petitioner is the statement of the co-accused.

Considering the above, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita and on further condition that the petitioner shall not threaten or intimate witnesses and shall surrender before the learned jurisdictional Court and pray for bail within four weeks from this date.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order may be delivered to the learned Advocates for the parties, if applied for, upon compliance of all formalities.
