In the matter of : Masu Sk @ Masum Sk

.... Petitioner.

Mr. Arup Kr. Bhowmick,

... For the Petitioner.

Mrs. Z. N. Khan,
Ms. Trina Mitra,

... For the State.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that there was an altercation between the neighbors which resulted in injuries. However, the same was not grievous in nature.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. He relies on the statement of witnesses and the injury report which, however, do not show infliction of any grievous injury, although the same was aimed on the head of the victim.

Considering the above, other materials available in the case diary I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Hence, the prayer for anticipatory bail is allowed.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest, the petitioner, namely, Masu Sk @ Masum Sk shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further conditions that the petitioner shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses and shall cooperate with the investigation and shall meet the I.O. once a fortnight. The petitioner shall stay outside the jurisdiction of Kaliachak Police Station for a period of two months except for the purpose of meeting the I.O. and attending jurisdiction court.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.
