Court No.34

SL.27

sg

CRR 141 of 2026

In the matter of : Suman Bose Sarkar

Mr. Gunjan Kumar Singh

Mr. Prakash Mishra

...for the Petitioner.

1. This revisional application has been filed seeking expeditious disposal of the proceeding filed under Section 12 of the D.V.Act, now pending before the Court of First Judicial Magistrate, 24-paragnas (North), Barasat.

2. The proceeding filed under Section 12 of the D.V. Act was in the month of August, 2023 and till date no interim order has even passed in connection with the proceeding and on different dates the matter was adjourned on the prayer made by the present opposite parties.

3. Present petitioner being aggrieved and victim of matrimonial cruelty compelled to file such proceeding but inordinate delay in disposal of the said case is prejudiced her and has violated her right under Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

4. Heard submission and perusal of the materials on record and the copy of the certified copy of order sheets it is glaringly visible since date of filing application nothing has been progressed. Several adjournments granted mostly on the prayer made by the respondents therein. Date has been fixed on 9th April, 2026 as a last chance in default for ex parte hearing.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances learned trial Court is directed to take appropriate steps for coming to the logical conclusion, in view of the proceeding pending before the Court by the petitioner, a victim of matrimonial cruelty either on the next date fixed or within a reasonable period of time without granting any unnecessary adjournments for either of the parties.

6. In view of the same revisional application stands disposed of.

7. Parties are to act on the server copy of this order downloaded from the official website of the Calcutta High Court.
