Ct. No. 06
Item 512
Cp

C.O. 279 of 2026

Narendra Kumar Anchalia & Ors.
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Arindam Chandra
Mr. D. Mukhopadhyay
Mr. Atish Ghosh

.....for the petitioners.

The petitioners pray for expeditious disposal of an application under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure seeking withdrawal of the amount deposited by the award debtor, i.e., the State of West Bengal, in connection with an application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, filed in connection with Misc. Case No.97 of 2024, pending before the Court of the learned District Judge, Birbhum at Suri.

The prayer of the petitioners is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a request to the learned court to dispose of the said application within two months from the next date fixed.

Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the application. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned trial court, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
