And

In the matter of: Sannyashi Dhibar @ Sanyasi Dhibar & another.
.... Petitioners

..for the State

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits as follows. The petitioners are the parents in law of the alleged victim. The incident took place about 11 years after marriage. The husband was arrested and is still in custody.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. She refers to the post mortem report, the inquest report and the statements of witnesses including those of neighbours. Charge sheet has been submitted.

Considering the above, the other materials available in the case diary and the fact that the husband has already been arrested and is still in custody and the fact that charge sheet has been submitted, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further conditions that the petitioners shall surrender before the learned jurisdictional Court and pray for bail within four weeks from this date and shall attend the jurisdictional Court regularly. The petitioners shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order be supplied to the parties, if applied for, as early as possible.
