Mr. Sanjib Das.

... for the State.

1. The affidavit of service filed today is taken on record.
2. The petitioner is aggrieved that having served as a Headmaster, retired thereafter, the petitioner was entitled to all benefits including an increment of three percent, which has not been paid to him.
3. Mr. Das, learned Advocate appearing for the respondent authorities, submits that this writ petition is pre-emptive as the petitioner has not approached the authorities and neither has his claim being rejected or refused.

The resultant order will be communicated to the petitioner by June 15, 2026.
