C.O. 683 of 2026

Torab Ali Mallick
-versus-
Md. Ajijur Rahaman Mallick & Ors.

Mr. Partha Pratim Roy
Mr. Samrat Chakraborty
..for the petitioner

This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the 2nd defendant praying for a direction upon the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court at Barasat to dispose of the Title Suit No.746 of 2021 expeditiously.

The learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that in connection with the said suit the opposite parties filed an application under Order 39 Rule 1 and 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure and an ad interim order of injunction has been passed by the learned trial judge which has been extended from time to time. He further submits that in spite of the fact that the petitioner has already filed the written objection to the injunction application and the injunction application is otherwise ready for hearing, the learned trial judge is mechanically extending the ad interim order of injunction.

In view of the order sought and proposed to be passed, there is no necessity to direct issuance of any notice upon the opposite parties. However, the learned advocate on record of the petitioner shall be obliged to forward a copy of this application along with a server copy of this order upon the opposite parties.

In the light of the submissions made by the learned advocate for the respective parties, C.O. 683 of 2026 stands disposed of by requesting the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court at Barasat to make an endeavour to dispose of the injunction application as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties provided the injunction application is otherwise ready for hearing.

There shall be, however, no order as to costs.

Urgent certified photocopy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties expeditiously on compliance of usual legal formalities.
