| Mr. Joy Chakraborty  | ... .. Petitioner(s)            |
| Mr. Sandip Dinda     |                                 |
|                      | ... for the Petitioner(s)       |

| Ms. Trisha Rakshit   | ... for the State-respondent(s) |

Learned advocate for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is a taxi driver and has been implicated along with the four other persons for alleged recovery of 47.04 kg of ganja. Learned advocate also submits that the petitioner is in custody for ten months; charge-sheet has been submitted before the learned jurisdictional court and the prosecution intends to rely upon nine witnesses in order to prove its case.

Learned advocate for the State opposes the prayer for bail. According to the prosecution’s case, it is because of the excess money, the petitioner knowingly carried the contraband.

A report has been submitted which reflects that the petitioner has no criminal antecedents.

Having considered the period of detention of the present petitioner and his complicity in the prosecution’s case which is restricted to the fact of earning extra money as also the fact that the prosecution would examine nine witnesses and till date charges have not been framed, I am of the view that further detention of the present petitioner is unwarranted.

Hence, the prayer for bail of the petitioner is Allowed.

Accordingly, the petitioner viz, Md Ibrar shall be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Additional Sessions Judge, 4th Court, Alipore.

If on bail, the petitioner shall also make himself physically available on each and every date so fixed by the learned Special court and shall not leave the district of Kolkata and South 24 Parganas without prior intimation to the learned Special court.

Accordingly, CRM(NDPS) 414 of 2026 is allowed.

Pending application(s), if any, is also disposed of.
