In Re: An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023. In connection with Lalgola P.S case no. 1103 of 2025 dated 30/12/2025 under sections 21(c)/29 of the NDPS Act.

In the matter of: Md. Alamgir Saikh

...Petitioner.

Mr. Arnab Chatterjee
Mr. Avik Ghosh
Ms. Debolina Roy
Ms. Ankusha Ghosh

...for the petitioner.

Mr. Soumik Ganguly
Mr. Sandip Kundu

...for the State.

1. Report filed on behalf of the State is taken on record.
2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that other than the statement of a co-accused, there is no other incriminating material available against the petitioner.
3. Learned counsel appearing for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. However, he relies on the report and submits that no call detail records or money trail or criminal antecedent are available to implicate the present petitioner.
4. In view of the above, the petitioner has been able to rebut the restriction contained in Section 37 of the NDPS Act and considering the materials available in the case diary, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to further conditions that the petitioner shall cooperate with the investigation and shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses. The petitioner shall meet the Investigating Officer once a week till submission of report in final form. The petitioner shall surrender before the learned jurisdictional Court and pray for bail within four weeks from date.
6. Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail is allowed.
7. Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties upon compliance with requisite formalities.
