.....for the State.

Petitioner surrendered before the Learned Special Court after his anticipatory bail was rejected on 05.01.2026.
Petitioner's anticipatory bail was primarily rejected on the ground that apart from the allegation relating to offences under the NDPS Act there were also allegation against the petitioner for harbouring Bangladesh Nationals. It has been submitted by the learned advocate for the petitioner that the petitioner surrendered on 07.01.2026 and has been implicated on the basis of statement of co-accused.

Learned advocate lastly submitted that since charge sheet has been submitted, petitioner may be released on bail on any stringent condition.

Learned advocate for the State opposes the prayer for bail and submits that there are antecedents of the present petitioner in similar type of offences. It has also been submitted that one of the person out of the other two accused persons who are in custody in connection with the instant case belongs to Bangladesh and the other accused who is absconding presently is an Indian.

Having considered the period of detention of the petitioner and that the petitioner surrendered immediately after the anticipatory bail prayer was rejected, I am inclined to release the petitioner on bail.

Accordingly, the prayer for bail of the petitioner is allowed.

Accordingly, Petitioner, namely, Royal Sk., shall furnish bond of Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand Only) with two sureties of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each.
