In Re: An application for bail under Section 483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 corresponding to section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 filed in connection with Ganga Sagar Coastal Police Station Case No.107 of 2022 dated 14.09.2022 under Sections 376D/376(2)(j)(I)/325/506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860;

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for three years and there has been variance in the evidence of the mother of the victim girl as well as from the statement under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. which was deposed in course of the investigation. Unnecessarily, according to the learned advocate, petitioner is languishing in jail and as there is no possibility of the case being taken to its logical conclusion within a reasonable period of time, petitioner as such may be released on bail on any stringent conditions.

Learned advocate for the State submits that all the prosecution witnesses have been examined and date has been fixed for examination of the accused under Section 313 of Cr.P.C.

Having considered the advanced stage of the proceedings, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on bail.

Accordingly, the prayer for bail of the petitioner in CRM(M)625 of 2026 is dismissed.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
