

19th May, 2026
(D/L No.34)
Ct. No.4
(SKB)

W.P.S.T. 69 of 2026

Dr. Kamalesh Bhattacharyya
Versus
The State of West Bengal and others

Mr. Sankha Ghosh,
Mr. M. N. Roy,
Mr. G. Halder,
Mr. B. Bandy

... for the petitioner.

1. A copy of the communication dated 18.05.2026 from the applicant/writ petitioner addressed to the learned advocate in the present proceeding is placed on record. Copy of the communication dated 18.05.2026 is kept on record.
2. As per the communication, the writ petitioner has requested the learned advocate to take steps for withdrawal of the pending present writ petition.
3. In terms of the written instructions, the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
4. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the pending contempt proceeding bearing No.CCP 21 of 2025 before the Tribunal out of which the present writ petition arises would also be futile and serve no useful purpose.

The contempt application being CCP 21 of 2026 is, accordingly, also disposed of.
