... for the State

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners' father was constructing a house and the de facto complainant and others have been disturbing and trying to prevent such construction from taking place. Prior complaints were lodged before the police regarding such disturbance. A writ petition has been filed before this Court. In spite of this, on the particular day, the de facto complainant and others entered into the petitioners' premises and a scuffle ensued. None of the injuries was grievous in nature. There are case and counter case.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail and relies on the statements of witnesses and the enquiry report which do not show infliction of any grievous injury.

Considering the above, the other materials available in the case diary and the fact that there are case and counter case, I do not think that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is required in this case and I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on the further conditions that the petitioners shall cooperate with the investigation, shall meet the investigating officer once a week till submission of report in final form and shall not threaten or intimidate witnesses.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance of requisite formalities.
