Mr. Pritam Roy
Mr. Arnab Saufor the State

1. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has prayed for bail of the present petitioner on the ground of prolong incarceration for more than two years and six months and take implication.
2. The learned Counsel for the State opposes the prayer for bail.
3. Heard the submissions of both the learned Advocates for the parties. Perused the materials on record as well as the case diary.
4. The case involves kidnapping and murder of a minor and the petitioner and the deceased was last seen together. The charge is framed however the trial has not commenced. But in view of the heinous nature of crime this court is of the view that grant of bail might have a serious consequence.

5. Hence, this Court is not inclined to allow the prayer.
6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the present case and also having regard to the fact that vital witnesses are yet to be examined, this Court does not find it as a fit case for grant of bail at this stage.
7. However, the learned Trial Court is directed to make all endeavour to frame the charge and to proceed with the case at an earliest.
8. The prayer for bail of the petitioner is, thus, rejected.
