.....for the Petitioners.

.....for the State.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submit that the petitioners are in custody for about 133 days and charge-sheet has been submitted before the jurisdictional Court.

Learned Public Prosecutor opposes the prayer for bail and submits that the present petitioners are responsible for the alleged offence and there are volumes of materials in support of the contention relating to the complicity of the present petitioners before this Court. It has also been submitted that if the petitioners are released on bail they may tamper the evidence as also jeopardize the further progress of the trial. It has also been submitted that so far as the other accused are concerned, the State is in the process of cancellation of bail. As such, the prayer for bail of the petitioners may be rejected.

I have taken into account the materials appearing in the Case Diary as also the factum that the investigating agency after thorough investigation has come to a conclusion that case has been made out under Section 105(2) of the BNS along with other cognizable offence. Having considered the period of detention of the present petitioners and the charge-sheet so submitted before the jurisdictional Court wherein the prosecution has relied upon 48 witnesses which will take substantial time to take the trial to its logical conclusion, I am of the opinion further detention of the present petitioners are unwarranted. As such, the prayer for bail of the petitioners is allowed.

Accordingly, petitioners namely, Manoranjan Shit and Raja Chakraborty shall be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties of Rs. 10,000 (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, one of whom must be local to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Baruipur.

If on bail, the petitioners shall make themselves available on each and every date before the learned Trial Court and shall not leave the Sub-Division of Baruipur without the prior permission of the learned Trial Court.

Additionally, if on bail the petitioners shall till the charges are framed meet with the investigating officer of the Case once in a fortnight.

It would be for the learned trial Court subsequently to decide whether such condition would continue after the framing of the charges.

With the aforesaid observations CRM (M) 933 of 2026 is allowed.
