... for the petitioners

Mr. Krishendu Bhattacharya

... Amicus

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are the parents-in-law and the brother-in-law of the alleged victim. The principal accused being the husband was arrested and thereafter granted bail. The marriage took place 8 years ago.

Learned Amicus, assisting the State, relies on the case diary and opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. He also relies on the post-mortem report and the statements of witnesses.

Considering the above, the other materials available in the case diary and the fact that the principal accused being the husband was arrested and thereafter granted bail, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on the further conditions that the petitioners shall cooperate with the investigation, shall not threaten or intimidate witnesses and the petitioner Nos.1 and 3 shall meet the investigating officer once a week till submission of report in final form.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance of requisite formalities.
