Emadur Rahaman & Anr.
Vs.
The Union of India & Ors.

Mr. Jahar Lal De, Ld. AGP
Mr. Nilotpal Chatterjee
Mr. Suddhadev Adak

.....For State

PER, SUJOY PAUL, CJ.:

1. None appears for the petitioners.
2. The State is represented by its learned counsels.
3. Since nobody entered appearance on 06.01.2026, the matter was listed under the heading "For Dismissal". Nobody appears for the petitioners today also.
4. Mr. Dey, learned AGP for the State submits that the petitioners have statutory remedy under the National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme, West Bengal, Grievance Redressal Rules, 2009 in respect of the relief claimed by them.
5. There is nobody to oppose the said contention.

6. The instant PIL is disposed of by reserving liberty to the petitioners to avail statutory remedy.
