In Re: An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023. In connection with Ranaghat P.S case no. 131 of 2026 dated 28/02/2026 under section 105 of the BNS

In the matter of: Bhaben Biswas

...Petitioner.

Mr. Sumanta Das

...for the petitioner.

Mr. Sagar Saha

...for the State.

1. Memo of evidence filed on behalf of the State is taken on record.
2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits as follows. There was an alleged altercation that led to the alcoholic victim falling down and receiving injuries. Actually, it was his mother-in-law who had beaten him up.
3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State relies on the case diary and strongly opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. He refers to the post-mortem report which shows amongst other things, serious head injury, extravasations of blood at the right parietal region of the scalp and the like. He also refers to the statement of the mother-in-law recorded before the learned Magistrate and the son of the alleged victim.

4. Considering the above and the other incriminating materials available in the case diary, I do not consider this to be a fit case to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
5. Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail is rejected.
